The Community of Christ Part VIII
Eph. 5:1-21

- The Central Obligation of Christian Sanctification
 - A central and defining mark of early Christians is that when they converted from paganism, they were required to walk away from a life of undisciplined and unrestrained sexual lust.
 - There should be no hint of sexual impropriety among God's people in the church.
 - The church needs to understand that sex is a gift from God.
 - It is not shameful and embarrassing, it is sacred and enriching.
 - Biblical sexuality is reserved for marriage between one man and one woman in the context of selfless commitment, mutual love, relational stability, and emotional security.
 - Casual sex is a lie. There's no such thing.
 - The sexual revolution is a catastrophic failure.
 - Secular sex has delivered disease.
 - Secular sex has delivered divorce.
 - Secular sex has delivered millions of dead children.
 - Secular sex has delivered digital pornography.
 - Secular sex has delivered destruction of families.
 - Secular sex has delivered emotional disappointment.
 - Secular sex has delivered personal disgrace.
 - Secular sex has delivered spiritual disaster.
 - But in Christ we are delivered and freed from bondage to the sin of secular sex.
