The Community of Christ Part IX
Eph. 5:15-33

- Christian People Model the Subjection of Christ (vv.15-21)
 - We are to be filled with the Spirit.
 - An example of being filled with the Spirit is being subject to one another.
 - Biblical authority is not about superiority.
 - Authority is never to be exercised selfishly, but always sacrificially.
- Christian Wives Model Submission to Christ (vv. 22-24)
 - Simple Fact: Men and women are not equal. (Thank God!)
 - Modern gender theory is a bad joke.
 - The submission of wives to their husbands' leadership is one specific application of the larger duty of all Christians to be subject to one another in love.
 - Male leadership is not based on culture, but on creation. (See Gen. 2; 1 Cor. 11; 1 Tim. 2)
 - If we disregard God's purpose for husbands and wives, we will have competition instead of cooperation.
 - Headship implies care and not control.
- Christian Husbands Model Sacrifice for Christ (vv. 25-33)
 - Paul points to Jesus as the example and archetype for what a real hero looks like.
 - Revelation 19 depicts Jesus as the conquering warrior who is the KING of kings and LORD of lords.
 - Jesus sacrificed Himself to save His bride.
 - Husbands' love for their wives is sacrificial.
 - Husbands' love for their wives is sanctifying.
 - Husbands' love for their wives is selfless.
