

The Gospel in Romans

Part 7

Rom. 4:1-25

Belonging to the _____ of God

- Paul now points to Abraham as the _____ of God's plan to rescue the world. (Gen. 12:1-3; 15:1-21)
- Verse 1 is better translated: What, then, shall we say? Have we _____ as our father according to the flesh?
- Verses 16-17 answer the question of verse 1. Abraham is not our father by flesh, but by _____ for both Jew and Gentile.
- That's the central question of Romans 4: Who is the _____ of God?
- Those who have faith in Christ _____ to the family of Christ.
- One central way to gauge the authenticity of your faith in Christ is to look at your level of _____ to His church.
- There is no Christ in a _____ Christianity.

Trusting in the _____ of God

- Abraham trusted that God could give him a _____ that did not yet exist.
- By trusting God's power, Abraham and Sarah were fulfilling the mandate of _____ and _____.
- God _____ us so we can _____ Him!
- Let's _____ God's power and let's give our _____ to change Taylor County for God's glory!
- Jesus _____ so you and I can live.
- You can believe the gospel and _____ to God's family today.

Part 7

Rom. 4:1-25

Belonging to the Family of God

- Paul now points to Abraham as the beginning of God's plan to rescue the world. (Gen. 12:1-3; 15:1-21)
- Verse 1 is better translated: What, then, shall we say? Have we Abraham as our father according to the flesh?
- Verses 16-17 answer the question of verse 1. Abraham is not our father by flesh, but by faith for both Jew and Gentile.
- That's the central question of Romans 4: Who is the family of God?
- Those who have faith in Christ belong to the family of Christ.
- One central way to gauge the authenticity of your faith in Christ is to look at your level of commitment to His church.
- There is no Christ in a churchless Christianity.

Trusting in the Power of God

- Abraham trusted that God could give him a family that did not yet exist.
- By trusting God's power, Abraham and Sarah were fulfilling the mandate of Adam and Eve.
- God saved us so we can serve Him!
- Let's trust God's power and let's give our lives to change Taylor County for God's glory!
- Jesus died so you and I can live.
- You can believe the gospel and belong to God's family today.
