

Thanksgiving 2018
Psalm 138:1

- The _____ of _____ gods
 - What is the connection between sin and _____?
 - The first purpose of human life is _____ or thanksgiving as God's priests. (Gen. 1)
 - The second purpose of human life is to _____ over creation on God's behalf. (Gen. 1)
 - When we worship false gods, instead of exercising the authority God meant for us, we allow _____ to exercise power over us.
 - Sin is missing the _____ of what God created us to be.
 - Sin is being _____ by, the idols that we worship.
 - At the cross, Christ _____ and dethroned the powers through the _____ of sin. (Col. 2)
 - We are no longer slaves to sin, but sons and daughters of _____. (Rom. 8)
- The _____ of _____ Praise
 - In Psalm 138, David is showing us what real _____ is.
 - Christians must be thanksgiving people who sing God's _____ before the false gods of this world.
 - The power the early Christian praise _____ the Roman world.
 - The earliest Christians sang the song of _____ and life.
 - The earliest Christians sang the song of _____.
 - The earliest Christians sang of loving _____.
 - Many sang the song of suffering _____.
 - They held on to the truth of God's Word _____.

Thanksgiving 2018
Psalm 138:1

- The Problem of False gods
 - What is the connection between sin and idolatry?
 - The first purpose of human life is worship or thanksgiving as God's priests. (Gen. 1)
 - The second purpose of human life is to reign over creation on God's behalf. (Gen. 1)
 - When we worship false gods, instead of exercising the authority God meant for us, we allow created things to exercise power over us.
 - Sin is missing the mark of what God created us to be.
 - Sin is being controlled by, the idols that we worship.
 - At the cross, Christ defeated and dethroned the powers through the forgiveness of sin. (Col. 2)
 - We are no longer slaves to sin, but sons and daughters of God. (Rom. 8)
- The Power of Human Praise
 - In Psalm 138, David is showing us what real Thanksgiving is.
 - Christians must be thanksgiving people who sing God's praises before the false gods of this world.
 - The power the early Christian praise conquered the Roman world.
 - The earliest Christians sang the song of fertility and life.
 - The earliest Christians sang the song of community.
 - The earliest Christians sang of loving sacrificially.
 - Many sang the song of suffering patiently.
 - They held on to the truth of God's Word steadfastly.